

Dancing Brave Bear Maintains Perfect Score

Written by Ed Vaughan

Thursday, 05 April 2018 00:00 -

DANCING BRAVE BEAR won as her odds predicted at Chelmsford this evening under Stevie Donohoe. She settled behind a pace which was a bit slow for her. She was pulled wide coming into the bend for a clear run and was well up on the line. She will not take her place in the Guineas but instead will more than likely make her next racecourse appearance in the Michael Seeley at York (Listed 3 year old fillies' race over a mile).